

Code of Conduct

War Eagle BEST expects teams and supporters accompanying them to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner while participating in the program. This includes all activities associated with their participation in the event.

- Appropriate conduct of teams and supporters is the sole responsibility of school officials and other adult chaperones that have legal responsibility as supervisors.
- Students should be under the supervision of school officials or chaperones during all excursions and competition activities, and in hotels and restaurants (as applicable).
- Students who violate the conduct code at any point during War Eagle BEST are subject to suspension from remaining competition activities.
- War Eagle BEST reserves the right to refuse participation in future competitions to any team whose behavior has been disruptive.

Inappropriate conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Property damage, vandalism, or theft.
- Use of alcohol or illegal drugs.
- Use of water pistols, water balloons, or other creative missiles.
- Fighting or loud/foul language or other disruptive/rude behavior.
- Disruptive and excessive noise during activities other than the actual competition.
- Dress that includes shirts/t-shirts and shoes are expected of all students during the competition.
- Apparel that displays design or language of a crude nature.

Financial liability for all damages or losses incurred by actions of team members and supporters shall be the sole responsibility of the team/school.